FREEDMAN'S SAVINGS AND TRUST

Washington, D. C., July 29, 1874.

Notice Is Hereby Given to all persons, other than depositors, who may have claims against the Freedman's Savings and Trust Company, or any of its Branches, that they are called upon to present the same, and to make legal proof thereof, to the Commissioners of said Company at their Office, No. 1507 Pennsylvania avenue, Washington, D. C. PASS BOOKS, when properly adjusted, will be deemed sufficient proof of the balances shown to be due thereon. Depositors will, therefore, present their Pass Books to the respective Branches by which they were issued as soon as possible, that they may be properly verified and balanced.

THE WEEKLY TIMES.

The Weekly Times is undoubtedly the best paper for the farmer, for the mechanic, and for all who live in localities which are served only by weekly mails. It contains, in addition to editorial comments on current topics, an excellent condensation of the news of the week; the most important events, both home and foreign, are revived at length, and a large quantity of matter is given especially interesting to the farmer and mechanic. Its market reports are the fullest and most eight.

Facts, Narrating the Hardships, Hair-Breadth Escapes, and Death Struggles of the Slaves in their Efforts for Freedom.

BY WILLIAM STILL,

For many years connected with the Anti-Slavery Office in Philadelphia, and Chairman of the Acting Vigilant Committee of the Philadelphia Branch of the Underground Railroad. Illustrated with 70 fine Engravings by Bensell, Schell, and others, and Portraits from Photographs from Life.

From a great number of cordial letters commending the Underground Railroad, the Author selects a few brief extracts only from eminent friends of Freedom who have examined the work.

From Wm. Lloyd Garrison:

From Wm. Lloyd Garrison:
I have examined it with a deep and thrilling interest. It is a most important portion of Anti-Slavery history. Its reliableness, moreover, cannot be called in question. It is a book for every household. From S. P. Chase, Chief Justice of U. S. Su preme Court:

No one probably has had equal opportunities with yourself of listening to the narratives of fugitive slaves. No one will repeat them more truthfully, and no stories can be more fraught with interest than theirs.

From J. M. McKim:

A book so unique in kind, so startling in in terest, and so trustworthy in its statements, cannot fail to command a large reading now, and in generations yet to come.

From Hon. Henry Wilson, Vice President:

From Hon. Charles Sumner:

The Underground Railroad has performed its part, but it must always be remembered gratefully, as one of the peculiar institutions of our country. I cannot think of it without a throbbing heart.

You do well to commemorate those associated with it by service or by benefit—the savieurs and the saved.

From Horace Greeley:
For most of the years I have lived, the escape of fugitives from slavery, and their efforts to baffle the human and other bloodhounds who ballie the human and other bloodhounds who tracked them, formed the romance of American History. That romance is now ended, and our grandchildren will hardly believe its leading incidents except on irresistible testimony. I rejoice that you are collecting and presenting that testimony, and heartly wish you a great success.

THE SUN.

WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND DAILY.

THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require an extended recommendation; but the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thousands more, are as follows:

From Hon. Henry Wilson, Vice President:
You have done a good work. This story of the heroic conduct of fugitives of oppression, and of the devotion of their friends, will be read with deep interest, especially by the old friends of the slave in the stern struggle through which we have passed. I hope your labors will be rewarded by a grateful public.

From Hon. Charles Sumner:
The Underground Railroad has performed its part, but it must always be remembered gratefully, as one of the peculiar institutions of our country. I cannot think of it without a throbbing heart.
You do well to commemorate those associated with it by service or by benefit—the sa pages.

It is a first-rate agricultural paper. The most fresh and instructive articles on agricultural topics regularly appear in this department.

It is an independent political paper, belt is an independent political paper, belt is a party and wearing no collar. It fights for principle, and for the election of the best men to office. It especially devotes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country, and threaten to undermine republican institutions altogether. It has no fear of knaves, and asks no favors from their supporters.

It reports the fashions for the ladies and the markets for the men, especially the attle markets, to which it pays particular atten-
